MEMORANDUM OPINION

Petitioner Brian Darnell Casey, Sr. seeks federal habeas relief under 28 U.S.C. § 2241. The magistrate judge entered a report on April 23, 2021, recommending this action be dismissed without prejudice based on Younger abstention and Mr. Casey's failure to exhaust available state remedies. (Doc. 8) (citing Younger v. Harris, 401 U.S. 37 (1971)). The magistrate judge advised Mr. Casey of his right to file specific written objections within fourteen days, but he has not done so.

Having carefully reviewed and considered de novo all the materials in the case, the court ADOPTS the magistrate judge's report and ACCEPTS her recommendation. (Doc. 8). The court WILL DISMISS this matter WITHOUT PREJUDICE based on both Younger abstention and Mr. Casey's failure to exhaust available state remedies.

The court will enter a separate order consistent with this memorandum opinion.

DONE and ORDERED this May 18, 2021.
